MEMORANDUM OF LAW

CIVIL ACTION
FILE NO.: 08 CV 3267

-----X

FRCP §12(a) (1) Service of pleadings.

FRCP § 12(a) (1) provides that: . . . Unless another time is specified by this rule or a federal statute, the time for serving a responsive pleading is as follows:

(A) A defendant must serve an answer:

(i) within 20 days after being served with the summons and complaint;

This Court's attention is respectfully directed to make note of the date on which Defendant, was properly served with the Summons and Verified Complaint, to wit: April 2, 2008. More than thirty days have passed since said Defendant was served, and to date, no appearance, answer or reply has been forthcoming either from the Defendant or representative.

The Defendant has failed, not only to make an appearance, but has also willfully and deliberately neglected to request an extension of time to answer and/or make an appearance.

It is apparent that the Defendant will not proceed with his defense. In spite of the fact that your declarant's office has determined the Defendant herein to be the proper party to this action, and has to this date proceeded in the prescribed manner to unveil his role and ultimate culpable conduct in the events which led to the within cause of action, said Defendant has willfully and deliberately failed to make an appearance and defend these claims asserted against him and, therefore, has defaulted.

Thus, the Defendant's default herein has been intentional or willful on his part; designed to prejudice or hamper Plaintiff's ability to litigate this action expeditiously. Plaintiff has a meritorious cause of action and it is your declarant's belief that sound public policy and judicial equity mandates that the issues involved herein be decided on the merits.

In view of the foregoing, the within application is made pursuant to FRCP §55(a), which states:

§55. DEFAULT JUDGMENT.

(a) Entering a Default.

When a party against whom a judgment for affirmative relief is sought has failed to plead or otherwise defend, and that failure is shown by affidavit or otherwise, the clerk must enter the party's default.

(b) Entering a Default Judgment.

(1) By the Clerk.

If the plaintiff's claim is for a sum certain or a sum that can be made certain by computation, the clerk — on the plaintiff's request, with an affidavit showing the amount due — must enter judgment for that amount and costs against a defendant who has been defaulted for not appearing and who is neither a minor nor an incompetent person.

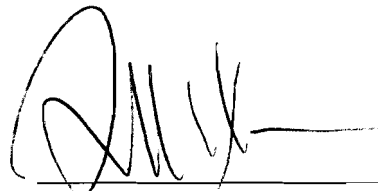

(2) By the Court.

In all other cases, the party must apply to the court for a default judgment. A default judgment may be entered against a minor or incompetent person only if represented by a general guardian, conservator, or other like fiduciary who has appeared. If the party against whom a default judgment is sought has appeared personally or by a representative, that party or its representative must be served with written notice of the application at least 3 days before the hearing. The court may conduct hearings or make referrals — preserving any federal statutory right to a jury trial — when, to enter or effectuate judgment, it needs to:

- (A) conduct an accounting;
- (B) determine the amount of damages;
- (C) establish the truth of any allegation by evidence; or
- (D) investigate any other matter.

Wherefore, it is respectfully requested that in addition to the specific relief sought herein, that costs, attorneys' fees and sanctions be awarded to Plaintiff's attorneys, to be paid by Defendant due to his cavalier disregard exhibited herein, including the necessity of the within application, in the event this Court sees fit not to enter a default judgment at this time.

For value received, YURI KUPER, an individual residing at 109 Flat Rock Rd, S. Kent, CT, Kent, Connecticut ("Maker"), hereby promises to pay to Scot J. 1. Interest Payments.

- a. Principal of, and any accrued and unpaid interest on, this Note shall be due and payable in full on January __, 2006 (the "Maturity Date"), unless it has been prepaid in accordance with the terms hereof. In the event that Maker fails to pay to Holder any portion of the principal and/or interest due on the Maturity Date, interest on the unpaid principal amount of this Note shall thereafter accrue at 7% per annum (calculated on the basis of a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30-day months).
